“ I only met Michael once when I accompanied my sister to the shepherd center. It was early in her diagnosis and she was just learning the ropes. We met Michael in the waiting room. He instantly became a source of support to her. He friended her on Facebook, answered her questions and calmed her fears. I'd always ask her about him whenever she attended future appointments or navigated medication changes. We'd say, you need to ask Michael about that. Our family was blessed to have him. My deepest sympathy to his family. He was and is a true angel.
